MONTAGUE'S BALM,
AN INDIAN REMEDY FOR TOOTHACH.

THE established reputation and constantly increasing demand for this effectual remedy of pain and preservative of the Teeth, has induced the subscriber to offer it to the American public Arrangements have been made to supply Agents in all the principal Cities and Towns of the United States, so as to place it within the reach of those suffering, and likely to suffer, with the most harassing of all Aches (Toothach) When applied according to directions given on the bottle, it has never failed to afford immediate and permanent relief. It also arrests the decay in defective teeth and relieves that soreness which so frequently renders a strong tooth useless.

The application and remedy are simple, innocent and not unpleasant, and the large number of persons in various sections of the country that have already experienced such delightful and salutary benefits from the use of the Balm, are ready to bear (for the public good) their testimony to its unrivalled qualities.

It is an Indian remedy, obtained singularly and unexpectedly, and may be regarded by the civilized world as the most valuable discovery of the Red Man of the Woods

All applications for Agencies or orders for the Balm, will receive prompt attention, if addressed to the subscriber, or to Holderby & McPheeters. Petersburg, Virginia.

FROM THE NEW BEDFORD GAZETTE.

"Mr. Snooks I'll trouble you for a slice of that beef."

"No trouble at all, sir; but excuse me until I shoot the Doctor, who is sitting at the head of the table. [Fires, and blows a stranger's brains out.] Ah! bless my soul! pardon me my good friend—I beg you won't mind my awkardness—that bullet was intended for the Doctor not for you; but n' im port." Boy, a glass of brandy!"

So says the Manchester (Miss.) Herald, which appears to take the thing quite as coolly as the parties referred to.—The editor in continuation, says, "Street fights meet with due reprobation, but a fight at the dinner table, with pistols charged with buck shot and split bullets is quite unpardonable."

Good Advice.—In one of the squire courts of New York, a blacksmith, who had the gift of stammering to perfection, was called into court, as a witness between two journeymen of his in a lawsuit, the amount in question being about seventy-five cents. The Judge, after hearing his testimony, asked him why he had not advised his workmen to settle, the cost being five times the amount of the disputed sum. In reply, the witness observed—"I t-t-t-told the the foo-o-o-ls to s-s-s-settle: I s-s-s-said the c-c-c-constable would t-t-t-take their c-c-c-coats, the l-l-l-lawyers their s-s-s-shirts, and if they got into your Honor's c-c-c-court you'd s-s-s-skin 'em.

The stock of the Philadelphia and Trenton railroad Company was sold in Philadelphia on Saturday at $200 per share: The par is $100.

Tribute to Chief Justice Marshall.—At a meeting of the Bench and Bar of the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of North Carolina, held at the court room, on the 13th day of November, 1835, the Honorable Henry Potter, Judge of the said District, was called to the chair, and Thomas P. Devereux, Esq. appointed Secretary. And the purpose of the meeting being intimated, the chairman addressed it, in substance as follows:

I cannot omit, upon this occasion, some expressions of my personal feelings towards the late Chief Justice. After an intimate acquaintance of thirty-two years with that great and good man, I must be supposed to have acquired some knowledge of his character. Indeed I knew him well. He was too ingenious to conceal from me any thing which was calculated to develope the whole man, and the more I knew him, the more I admired him. He was great without an effort; and the social and gentle virtues found in his heart their native soil. With a clear perception of truth, and an undeviating pursuit of it, unwarped by partiality or prejudice; with a logical and lucid mind, well disciplined and adjusted for close and patient investigation; and with an integrity beyond all price, he was, above all others of my acquaintance, peculiarly qualified for the discharge of the various delicate and important duties of the Bench. As a companion and friend, and as the great luminary of our profession, I do most sincerely mourn his loss. His equal, as a jurist, and as a man, taking him all in all, I expect never to behold; for in him were happily blended all the constituent qualities of the really great man. His striking characteristics were, a clear head, a vigorous intellect, a logical mind, and an honest heart. In fine, he was a profound thinker and a matchless reasoner.

The following resolutions being then moved and seconded, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we consider the death of the late Chief Justice Marshall as a public calamity, which we, in common with the Bar and people of the U. States, sincerely and deeply deplore.

Resolved, That the Bar and people of North Carolina have especial reasons to regret his loss, because we not only shared, in common with the whole nation, the benefit of his judicial wisdom and integrity, in the Supreme Court of the Union, but derived peculiar advantage from those qualities in the Circuit Court of the United States for this District.

Resolved, That during the long period, of more than thirty years, in which he presided in the Circuit Court of this district, he was eminently distinguished as a "most reverend Judge, of profound and judicial knowledge, accompanied with a steady and singular capacity, grave and sensible elocution, and continued and admirable patience."

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting be requested to communicate a copy of these resolutions to the family of the late Chief Justice, with the assurance of our deep sympathy in a loss, which, to them, admits of no reparation, and cannot be adequately supplied.

Rutherford Superior Court was held last week, by his Honor, Judge Martin; no civil business was done on account of the importance of the State Docket. John Garrett was convicted of the murder of Peter Strond, and sentenced to be hung on the 2nd Friday in December next. Hezekiah Garrett, his brother, was charged in another indictment as accessary before the fact, and was acquitted. The first case was argued by the Solicitor, W. J. Alexander, Esq. and J. McD. Carson, Esq. for the State, and D. F. Caldwell and A. Erwin, Esquires, for the prisoner. The latter case was argued by the same Gentlemen for the State, and B. E. Edney Esq. for the prisoner. A considerable number of aggravated assaults and batteries and gross misdemeanors were tried, and the defendants mostly convicted. We learn that fines were imposed on the convicts to the amount of near a thousand dollars, almost every dollar of which was collected. As Judge Martin has now well near finished his judicial labors in North Carolina, and is about to take his departure from amongst us, we may be permitted to say of him, what in fact ought ever to be said of every Judge, "that he is in truth a terror to evil doers, and a sanctuary for the innocent." Clear, prompt, forcible and independent, with a sufficient share of moral courage always to meet the responsibilities of his station, and character for virtue and integrity that never was questioned. Judge Martin was certainly one of the best officers that ever sat in the Courts of this State, and his resignation will form a chasm not easily to be supplied.—Salisbury Watchman.

UNITED STATES BANK.—Who does not remember the efforts made by the Jackson men some two years ago to show that the Bank of the United States would not be able to meet her responsibilities: even in the reasons for removing the deposites, this was one relied on to some extent. The leaders knew better—but they wished to deceive the simple ones: and, to a degree, they succeeded. But how is it now? There is no paper more greedily sought for than hers. And in winding up, she has no difficulty in selling out her debts, and branches, on the most advantageous terms. Indeed she has more bids for such contracts than can be satisfied.

The Mint.—We learn that a new die for the coins of the United States, is now in a state of preparation, and will be ready for use in the ensuing year. The design was prepared by Sully, and is said to be exceedingly beautiful. It is a full length image of the Goddess of Liberty, in a sitting posture, with one hand resting on a shield containing the coat of arms of the United States. On the reverse will be the American Eagle, as at present, without however, the shield and coat of arms with which his breast is disfigured, and which somewhat resembles a gridiron, exhibiting the bad taste of broiling a bird with his feathers on. The first coin struck with the new device, will be the dollar, of which there have none been coined for thirty years.—Philad. Gaz.

Chloride of Lime.—In order that my attestation may be regarded as more direct, I have concluded to depart from the ordinary form of editorial writing, and to put my name to this statement.

Ever since I came to this place with a family, which was in 1822, they have been harrassed with sickness in an uncommon degree, except during the last year, in which time, they have been perfectly healthy. I had lost several children, one apprentice, and several slaves. These visitations were so much more severe upon my family than on others, that the Physician in attendance, Dr. Mitchell, thought it probable that there might be a co-operation of local influences, and the house in which we lived being quite old, he thought it not unlikely that some emanation from the timbers or walls produced this excessive share of disease; he therefore recommended a liberal use of Chloride of Lime. I had this article scattered in every hole and corner from garret to cellar, particularly in damp places; and have at intervals of a month or so renewed the process. Since the first trial of the experiment, I have not had a case of sickness of any kind. Whether this consequence be the legitimate result of distributing the chloride of lime, I am not entirely satisfied, as our town during the same time has been generally healthy. But the town has frequently been healthy while my family and a few others have been sorely afflicted before this experiment. Lime is known to be a most efficient disinfector, and comfort alone recommends its use in villages. In its concentrated form of a chloride, it certainly would conduce much to the health of our towns, if small quantities were thrown into every place that could be suspected of infection. The article is very cheap, and a small quantity goes a great ways in use; it is generally to be had at all the apothecaries' shops.

I will mention another fact, which can be attested by all my large family, but whether it also be a consequence or a mere coincidence I will not say. The house in which we lived had been more thoroughly infested with rats and mice than any place I ever knew. They were particularly troublesome about the smoke house: shortly after using the chloride it was noticed that the whole fraternity had decamped. Now and then a straggler may be heard above stairs, but they are by no means troublesome: while our neighbors complain of an increase of this evil.

H. C. JONES.

Gambling.—Short as we presume the present session of Assembly will be, we hope it will find time to abolish for ever licensed gambling in the State. Although the evils of poverty and crime which arise from this legalized immorality are declaimed against throughout the whole Union, yet there is scarcely a paltry village that does not contain temptations of the kind. Not to be out of the fashion, we, yes we, the good citizens of the town of Newbern, have no fewer than two regularly licensed establishments, where our youth, and even those who are not so very young, have an opportunity of spending their superfluous cash in a gentlemanlike manner at any hour of the night or day.—We have no right to find fault with those who amuse themselves in this manner, nor do we; but we do condemn the law which permits temptations of so seducing, so dangerous a kind, to be placed in the way of thoughtless young men whose experience of the world is too superficial to shield them from the ruinous practices and consequences ever attendant on habitual gambling.

FROM THE PHILADELPHIA GAZETTE.

Beauties of Rotation in Office.—An accidental meeting took place not long since in one of our streets, between three individuals, who joined in a hearty laugh, at the association of ideas forced upon them by the occurrence. One of them was the holder of an office yielding a very small income, and the other two were citizens in private life. The last time they had met together was at Harrisburg, in the year 1822, when they were all in the service of the State. One was Governor, one was Secretary of the Commonwealth, and one was a Senator. Subsequent to that period, they were all engaged in the service of the General Government. One was a Senator in Congress, another a Cabinet Minister, and the third was employed on a Foreign Mission. The wheel had turned round with them, and landed them all upon their backs, as it has done all who have gone the same road before them, and as it will do all who go the same road after them. As a picture of human life, this spectacle was not without its moral. The stations once occupied by two of these individuals gave them great patronage, and whilst in possession of it, they received the same sort of homage that waits upon all men in power. We will now venture to assert, that either of them could point to hundreds of men who received offices at their hands, and who would not now contribute a dollar for their relief, if they were in want, such is the nature of political gratitude.

It will no doubt be gratifying to the friends of literature to learn that we have now in press the speech of the Hon. Nicholas Biddle, delivered at the recent commencement of the College in this place. It will be published next week, when we intend to treat our patrons and friends to copious extracts from it on some of the highly interesting subjects he treats of. The whole of it is well worthy of an attentive perusal.

We learn that Judge GASTON's address before the two literary societies is also in press, and it is expected will be issued about the same time.

FROM THE NEW JERSEY FREDONIAN.

It seems to be the policy of the leading administration prints, from the Globe downwards, or upwards, to get up a war feeling against France. There is some sinister political movement resolved upon, we have no doubt, which this French question is intended to cover, or to aid. We hope the Whig papers will be careful not to add to the excitement against France. There is nothing in the French question to induce a war. The utter refusal of France to pay us our just demands would be no adequate cause for war. It would disgrace France, and a dignified forbearance on our part would elevate us in the eyes of all the world, and be infinitely more wounding to French pride than any other course. We ought not to think of a war to enforce the payment of a debt, any more than an individual should think of challenging to mortal combat his ordinary debtor, for refusing to pay his debt. Our honor is in no wise involved, as the question now stands; but France has every thing to lose in that respect.

Dispute on the New Hampshire Borders. We learn from the Concord Statesman, that the statement contained in a letter from Columbia, which was first published in the Newburyport Herald, of the killing of several persons, in a contest between a Sheriff's posse, and a number of the inhabitants of the disputed territory, is untrue.—There had been no lives lost in the quarrel, and only two persons were wounded. An express arrived in Concord on Sunday of last week, with information to the Governor, in consequence of which, he despatched Adj. Gen. Lord to the scene of the difficulties, with authority to adopt such measures to suppress any insurrectionary movements as may be necessary. Gen. Lord left Concord on Tuesday morning.

ANECDOTE FROM THE LONDON COURT JOURNAL.

Hospitality.—The late Dr. Thynne, so well known for his love of good eating, called one day to pay a visit to the eccentric Lord R——. He was shown into the dining room, where he found his Lordship alone, and engaged in the discussion of an exquisite little dinner. After talking for some time, "My Lord," said the Doctor, (excited by the agreeable odor,) "I think it would be no great stretch of hospitality were your Lordship to say, 'Doctor, pray do as I am doing.'" "Well, Doctor," said his Lordship, "pray do as I am doing—go home and eat your own dinner."

An itinerating dentist lately called at a house and applied for business. "Don't you want your teeth drawn?" says he to the owner. "No." "Don't your wife?" "No." "None of the children?" "No." "Can't you give me some sort of a job?" says the dentist. "Why," says the gentleman, "I have got an old cross cut saw, the teeth of which are out of order. You can have that job, if you'll fix 'em."

North Carolina.—We trust that the North Carolina Legislature will at this Session press upon the General Government the consideration of their Resolutions of last Session, on the British outrage upon the property of their citizens (Mr. Waddell and others) by the seizure and manumission of their slaves by the authorities in one of the West India ports. Why was it not pressed at the last Session of Congress? Why has the Federal Government not taken it up? Are they not bound to protect the property of the Southern States, by the exercise of the powers we have delegated for that purpose among others? Surely we are not to allow Great Britain to say what shall be and what shall not be property in America! and to seize and dispose of the property of American citizens at their will and pleasure! Redress must be demanded. Having recognized our right of property in the compact—the Union is bound to make the guarantee valid. It is a most important point: and one which is at the present excited moment well calculated to rally the whole South to concerted action. If the matter is suffered to pass without a word of explanation from England, an important principle is conceded. The outrage, be it remembered, has been repeated since in the case of another American vessel—and surely the delegation of every Southern State, should be called upon to urge it upon Congress at the coming Session. We shall follow up these hastily written suggestions hereafter. The passive silence which has prevailed, with a few exceptions, under these wrongs, is to us unaccountable.—Charleston Mercury.

The N. C. Baptist State Convention.—This body held its Fifth Annual Meeting at the Union Camp-ground, Rowan county, commencing on Friday the 30th October, and continuing in session until the night of Tuesday following. The introductory services were performed by Elder John Kerr, late of Richmond Virginia, who delivered a discourse on the occasion, from Psalm 51, 12, 13. The Convention was called to order by Gen A. Dockery, who, after the organization of the meeting, was re-elected President; Elder John Armstrong was re-elected Corresponding Secretary, Elder J. McDaniel was elected Recording Secretary, and Wm. Roles, Esq was chosen Treasurer in place of Chas. McAllister, resigned. There were present upwards of fifty delegates, chiefly from the middle and western sections of the State. There was also a number of visiting brethren, principally ministers, who were cordially invited to seats, and who generally attended the deliberations of the meeting. Although from many portions of the State there were no communications, yet the contributions exceeded those of the last year. In addition to the ordinary business of the occasion, resolutions were adopted in favor of Sunday Schools, Tracts, Temperance, &c. A resolution was adopted disapproving, in the most unqualified terms, of the recent abolition operations in the northern and eastern States. Harmony, unanimity, and good will marked the deliberations throughout.—Salisbury Biblical Recorder.

Present of Plate.—We learn from the Philadelphia papers, that a splendid tea sett of silver is to be presented to Mrs. Duane, of Philadelphia manufacture. The principal pieces bear the following inscription:—

"Presented to Mrs. William J. Duane, grand-daughter of Dr. Franklin, as a testimony of respect for her own virtues, and those of her husband, late secretary of the United States treasury, whose regard for the laws was visited on him by deprivation of office, loss of official favor, and political and partizan persecution."

Mademoiselle Celeste.—The following statement of cash received by this distinguished dancer, in different cities since her arrival in this country (just one year ago) will show that her success has been truly astonishing;—New York $22,303; Boston $13,500; Philadelphia $8,500; Baltimore $3,506; Montreal $1000; Quebec $800; Albany $130. Total $50,030.

In a few days she will proceed to New Orleans and Mobile, where she will receive nine thousand dollars for six weeks performance.

There are now two Acting Governors in Michigan. We observe that Gov. Mason has just delivered his inaugural address, and Gov. Horner has just issued a Proclamation.

The address of Gov. Mason, states, that, as a necessary consequence of his election under the Constitution adopted by Michigan as a State, the Territorial Governor and Secretary appointed by the President and Senate are superseded. This is, however, begging the whole question of whether any Territory can by its own act, and without the consent of Congress previously given, constitute itself a State, and claim admission into the Union.

To us it seems pretty clear it cannot, and it is therefore, in our judgment, an adventurous proceeding in the people of Michigan, to elect officers of government and of the legislature, and to expect that the functionaries of the general government will give way. This question must early occupy the attention of Congress.

New York American.

Consequence of Illegible Writing.—In a suit tried on Tuesday in the Circuit Court, New York, before Judge Edwards, instituted by Josiah M. Barker, of this city, for the recovery of six thousand dollars from a Mr. Wm. Millards, on a note endorsed by the latter in the year 1835, the plaintiff was defeated in consequence of having mistaken the defendant's name for Millan, and by such name having served him with notice of protest.

New York, Nov. 16.

LATER FROM ENGLAND AND FRANCE.—The London packet ship Sampson, Captain Chadwick, arrived yesterday. She brings London dates to the evening of the 10th ultimo, and Portsmouth of the 12th. By the brig Norfolk, Capt. Matthews, from Bordeaux, we have received Bordeaux papers of the 5th, and by the ship Olympia, Capt. Adams, from Havre, papers from that place of the 4th.

The intelligence they all contain is of very little importance in a political sense. The English papers represent the accession of M. Mendizabal to the Cabinet of the Queen, as productive of the most favorable results to the Constitutional cause. Many of the juntas established in opposition to the measures of the former minister, M. Torreno, had now expressed a desire to act in perfect concert with the Queen. As a means of pacifying the Basque provinces and Navarre, it is said the peculiar privileges hitherto possessed by them, will not be infringed; still we fear it will be difficult to induce the peasantry, who have now so long been accustomed to predatory warfare, to return to their former peaceful avocations.

Some instances of disaffection have been discovered in the French army. We do not believe however that they are of any great extent. Louis Phillippe was about again to devote himself to the general affairs of the country, from which he seems to have been diverted by the attempt of Fieschi, and the late laws against the press. We do not find a word in relation to our indemnity.

The Capitol at Washington has been undergoing some repairs and alteration, preparatory to the opening of the session of Congress. The semi-circular gallery of the Senate has been fitted up with sofas, and a new entrance is provided for the accommodation of the ladies, who are henceforth to be excluded from the floor of the Senate.

George Thompson.—This miserable creature has left the U. States no more to return. He sailed from Boston a few days ago for the British Province of New Brunswick. He has gone with all his sins upon his head. Not a word of apology or explanation has been offered by him or by the abolitionists who have foisted him upon the public, in reply to the affidavits which have been published proving that in 1830 he was convicted of being a thief, having stolen from his employers no less a sum than £160 sterling, or about $750,—and that, after having been forgiven for a previous offence of the same character. No apology has been given for his having assumed the clerical office under which he preached repeatedly, though never having been authorized to do so by the forms or authority of any denomination.

Dreadful Accident:—Four Lives Lost.—At a corn shucking, in the county of Surry, at the house of Leonard Scott, Sen., a few days since, a Son and Grandson, of Mr. Scott, also a son of Mr. Sprinkle, a neighbor, and a negro man belonging to Mr. Sprinkle, were suddenly killed by the fall of a crib, into which they were throwing corn. The house was quite narrow, and high, and the wind blew it over and caught them under it: they were all dead before they could be extricated. Six other persons were caught and wounded, some of them seriously, but we are glad to hear that they are all considered out of danger. What seems a little singular, is that the danger of their situation had been observed, and spoken of, but not sufficiently appreciated; the negro man replied jocularly on the occasion, that if a negro girl could make her escape, that he could.

Audubon, the Ornithologist, is superintending the publication of the 3d and 4th volumes of his great work, in Edinburgh. He intends visiting this country early in the Spring, with a view of travelling to the distant West, that he may be enabled to complete his work in the most effectual manner.

$3,000 REWARD—The above reward of $3,000 together with all reasonable expenses, will be paid by the Union Bank of Louisiana for the apprehension and delivery at the jail in New Orleans of DUDLEY W. BABCOCK, late cashier of the branch of this bank at Clinton, who has absconded with the funds of the institution to the amount of about 30,000 dollars.

Babcock is a native of Rhode Island, is about 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, is of a sickly appearance and sallow complexion, has dark hair, large dark eyes, high forehead, and large prominent nose.

Census of the Town of Buffalo.—We have been furnished with the census of the town of Buffalo, exclusive of the city, by the Marshall, Amos Callender, Esq., which shows a population of 4259; gain in five years, 1912. The census of the county is now complete. The population amounts to 57,902; gain in five years, 22,184—or about 70 per cent. We believe that no other county in the State can show such a comparative increase as Erie.

South Carolina Coal.—A letter from Col. Blanding, dated Columbia, November 16th, says:—

"We have had, within the last week, presented in this place, specimens of Coal, which we are assured can be procured 22 miles above us, on Little River.—Professor Ellet goes up to-morrow to examine the place, where it is found. The geological position is the same as the Coal Mines near Richmond, Virginia: and it is therefore probable there may be no mistake in the matter. We shall soon know. Our Rail Road, should it pass up the valley of Broad River, will run along side if not through the spot.—Charleston Mercury.

Bishop Ives.—We are politely permitted to make public the following hastily-penned lines from Bishop Ives, under date of Geneva, September 20, 1835.

"MY DEAR ——, I have only time to write you a word to assure you of my improved health. Travelling on foot in the delightful climate of Switzerland has done more than any thing else to set me up. I have felt for the last two weeks like a new man. Indeed it could hardly be otherwise, the air is so pure, and the scenery so beautiful and grand. I have visited most of the south and western cantons, the Jura Mountains, the awful heights of Mont Blanc, the 'clear and placid Leman,' with its variety of enchanting objects, and to-morrow, God willing, I start on foot for Martigny, the great St. Bernard, Col de Balme, &c. &c. I have derived so much benefit already from this kind of exercise and diversion, that I am resolved to pursue it till impeded by the snows of winter, when I now think I shall return to the south of England, as the cholera is still raging in Italy."—Churchman.

LATEST FROM TEXAS.

We learn from a gentleman, that has just arrived, by land, from Texas, that the Texians had been able to surround Gen. Cos and his small army of 700 men, and that all chance of escape was shut out from him.—The Texians speak confidently of an easy victory.

We learn from the Evening Star, that all the forts in the harbour of New York are ordered to be garrisoned forthwith. One hundred cannon have been ordered to Fort Richmond.—Norfolk Herald.

A Resolution has passed the Senate of Georgia, instructing the Governor of that State to procure forthwith the services of some distinguished Engineer, to have a survey made of the country affording the best route for a rail road through the territory of Georgia, connecting the Southern Atlantic coast with Cincinnati.

Mr. ADAMS is, though early, by no means the first Member of Congress on the ground. Several others have been here, and have made choice of their seats in the Hall of Representatives for the ensuing session of Congress.—Nat. Intelligencer.

A LONG CONTRACT.—Mr. J. Caldwell, proprietor and manager of the New Orleans Theatre, has extended his enterprises till they have reached and included Louisville, Ky.; which city he has contracted to light with gas for thirty-six years to come.

"Are you the man," said an American coachman to Duke Bernard, of Saxe Weimar, "that is to go in that carriage?" "Yes." "Then I am the gentleman that is to drive you."—London Courier.

North Carolina Legislature.

SENATE.

Tuesday, Nov. 17.

On motion of Mr. Polk, ordered that a select committee of five be appointed to prepare permanent Rules of Order for the Senate, during the present session; upon which the following gentlemen were appointed to compose said committee, viz. Messrs. Polk, Edwards, Wyche, Bryan, and Kerr.

It was also ordered, on Mr. Polk's motion, that the Rules of last session shall be in force until others shall have been adopted.

On motion of Mr. Wyche, a message was sent to the House of Commons, proposing to raise a joint select committee, consisting of five on the part of each House, to prepare joint rules of order for the government of the two Houses. A Message, stating the concurrence of that House was subsequently received, and Messrs. Wyche, Wilson, Hill, Waugh and Morehead were appointed the committee on the part of the Senate.

The message from the House of Commons, proposing that a joint select committee of two, on the part of each House, be raised to wait on his Excellency the Governor, to inform him of the organization of the two Houses, and of their readiness to receive any communication he may think proper to make, was agreed to; and Messrs. Edmonston and Joiner were appointed to form the committee on the part of the Senate.

Mr. Joiner, from the committee appointed to wait on the Governor, reported that he would make communication to the Legislature at 12 o'clock this day.

Wednesday Nov 18.

David W. Simmons, the Senator elect from the county, of Onslow, appeared, produced his credentials, was qualified, and took his seat.

Mr. Polk, from the Committee raised for that purpose, reported rules of order for the government of the Senate, which, on motion of Mr. Wellborn, were amended and adopted.

The Speaker laid before the Senate the proceedings of the citizens of Charleston, in reference to the proposed Rail Road from Cincinnati to Charleston, which, on motion of Mr. Edwards, were ordered to be laid on the table; and

The Senate adjourned.

Thursday, Nov 19

Mr. McQueen, the Senator from Chatham, and Mr. Mebane, the Senator from Bertie, appeared at the bar, and on motion, were qualified and took their seats.

On Finance—Messrs Wyche, Marsteller, Moody, Selby, Vann, Fox, Gavin and Wellborn.

On Education and Literary Fund—Messrs. McQueen, Gambill, Exum, Alexander, Moore of Stokes, Cowper of Gates Dowd and Sharpe.

On Propositions and Grievances—Messrs Edmonston, Cooper, of Martin, Beasly, Kendall, Hussey, Martin, Moye of Pitt, and Williams of Person.

On Claims—Messrs Moye of Greene, Williams of Franklin, Tillett, Houlder, Young, Ballew, Patterson and Baker.

On Internal Improvement—Messrs Hill, Harry, Joiner, Kerr, Lindsey, Staley, Waugh and Williams of Franklin.

On Enrolled Bills—Messrs. Marsteller and Moore of Stokes.

On the Library—Messrs. Mebane, Alexander and Hill.

On motion of Mr. Waugh, the communication containing the proceedings of the citizens of Charleston relative to the proposed Rail Road from Cincinnati to that City, was taken up and referred to the Committee on Internal Improvement.

The following gentlemen were appointed to compose the Committee on so much of the Governor's Message as relates to the Public Printer, viz: Messrs Mebane, Cromartie, Simmons, Raburn and Whitaker.

Mr. Polk presented a series of Resolutions, referring the various subjects contained in the Governor's Message to appropriate Committees.

One of these Resolutions proposed that so much of the Message as relates to the Abolitionists, be referred to a joint select Committee, consisting of one member from each Congressional District, on the part of each House.

Mr. Moore, of Rutherford, moved to substitute "one member from each Judicial Circuit." He thought the committee would then be sufficiently large, and would likewise represent the different sections of the State. It would also comprise a number better calculated for the convenient despatch of business, which was an important consideration in the proceedings of a legislative body.

The question was then put on Mr. Moore's proposition, and decided in the negative.

Friday, Nov 20.

Mr. Kendall presented the petition of John Mason, and Mr. Staley, the petition of Robert Walker. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Bryan, ordered that the Judiciary Committee be instructed to inquire into the expediency of granting to the Supreme Court power and authority in all cases before said Court, by appeal or otherwise, to send any special matters at issue arising in said cases, to the Court below, from which any of them were brought, that the fact may be more fully and properly ascertained.

Resolved, That the General Assembly adjourn on the 20th day of December next, sine die: and that the Clerks be directed to make up their estimates to that day; which was read the first and second times and passed—Ayes 29, Noes 29—the Speaker voting in the affirmative.

Mr. Edmonston moved that the Resolution lie upon the table, which was negatived by a vote of 32 to 26. It was then read the third time, when Mr. Cooper moved to amend it; on which a discussion arose, in which Messrs. McQueen, Edwards, Wellborn, Cooper, and Hogan took part—the three first against, and the two last named gentlemen in favor of the Resolution; but before the question was taken the Senate adjourned.

Saturday, Nov. 21.

The resolution fixing the day of adjournment of the Legislature, was read the third time, and, on motion of Mr. Hogan, ordered to be laid on the table.

Mr. Whitehurst presented a bill to prevent Justices of the Peace from issuing ca. sas. until a return has been made by some lawful officer, that the defendant has no property, providing for appeals, and for other purposes. Read the first time and referred.

Mr. Dowd presented the petition of Daniel McDonald, praying a land warrant in behalf of the heirs of F. McDonald, as a compensation for his revolutionary services Referred.

Rules of Order for the government of this House. The Speaker named as this committee, Messrs. Graham, Hoke, Hybart, Poindexter and Hutchison.

On motion of the same gentleman, a message was sent to the Senate, proposing to raise a select Committee, to prepare Joint Rules of Order. This proposition was subsequently agreed to by the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Manly, a message was sent to the Senate, proposing to raise a Joint Committee of two members of each House to wait on His Excellency, the Governor, and inform him of the readiness of the Legislature to receive any communication which he may be pleased to make.—The message was concurred in, and the committee subsequently reported that at 12 o'clock this day, the Governor would make a communication in writing.

On motion of Mr. Gwyn a message was sent to the Senate, proposing to ballot for three Engrossing Clerks. The Senate having returned a message concurring in the proposition, the following gentlemen were put in nomination, viz., William W. Hall, Thomas G. Stone, Joseph D. Ward, J. C. Stone, Nehemiah Blackstock and J. J. Thomas. On the first balloting, the three first named, (Clerks at the last session,) were elected by the following vote: Hall 145. Ward 118 T. G. Stone 112, J. C. Stone 55, Blackstock 35, Thomas 38.

Wednesday, Nov. 18.

The following members appeared at the bar of the House, and on motion were severally admitted to take their seats, the prescribed Oaths having been administered by the Clerk, viz: Henry S. Clarke, of Beaufort, James Howard, of Jones, Roderick B. Gary, of Northampton, Council Wooten, of Lenoir, and Edward B. Dudley, of Wilmington.

Mr. Graham, from the select Committee appointed to prepare Rules of Order for the government of this House, reported the same, which were read and adopted without amendment, and ordered to be printed for the use of the members, together with the Constitution of the State and of the United States.

A motion having been made that the House proceed to the appointment of its Standing Committees, the Speaker left the Chair, and the members in the several Congressional Districts having selected the individuals to compose said Committees, the result was announced to the House as follows, viz:

On Propositions and Grievances—J T Granbury, Roderick Gary, Lem Doherry, John H Hawkins, Isaac Lane, John B Kelly, Robert Jones, Caleb H Matthews, C Brummel, J M. Hutchinson, James W Gunn and James A. King.

On Education—John B Muse, Macon Moye, Solomon Jeffreys, Peter R Lilly, L. A. Guinn, Michael Hoke, Thomas L Clingham, Robert Bond, James W. Howard, O R. Kenan, William A Graham, John Clement and Edward J Erwin.

On Agriculture—Whitmel Stallings, J Pippin, Elijah Hester, George Thomas, Stephen Dodson, J. A Dunn, T H Speller, C. Wooten, R Lyon, John Stockard, J. S Guthrie, Nathaniel Harrison and Wm. Horton.

On Privileges and Elections—Th. S Hoskins, J. L Swindell, Samuel Brown, John A MacRae, Jesse H Lindsay, Michael Hoke, Wm M West, John H Hammond, Wm R Hall, J M Williamson, Wm. B Lane, John H Bedford and Solomon Loudermilk.

On Internal Improvement—Jona H Jacocks, U. W Swanner, T. J Judkins, Th L Hybart, Ralph Gorrell, Levi Hope, Sterling H Gee, J W. Hunt, E. B Dudley, Allen Rogers, William Chambers, May Jervis and Mordecai Fleming.

The Report of the Public Treasurer was received, transmitted to the Senate, and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Saunders, a message was sent to the Senate to raise a select joint Committee on so much of the Governor's Message as relates to the subject of Abolition, and the House adjourned.

Thursday, Nov. 19.

The Speaker announced the appointment of the following Committees:

On the Judiciary—Messrs. Graham, Carson, Hoke, Hybart, Manly, Williamson, Clark, Hutchinson and Jordan.

On Private Bills—Messrs J W Guinn, Guthrie, Eaton, J. A D McNeill, King, Fitzrandolph, Rayner, Byrum, Howerton, Bond, Hunt and Swindell.

Mr. Clingham submitted the following Resolutions:

Resolved. As the opinion of this General Assembly, that any act by which the Congress of the United States shall give the public lands to the States in which they are situated, or any act by which the minimum price at which these lands are now sold, shall be reduced, would seriously affect the prosperity of all the old States, and do great injustice to those States by which they were originally ceded to the Confederacy.

II. Resolved further, As the opinion of this General Assembly, that the public debt having been extinguished, and the object for which the cession of the respective portions of the public domain by the States which originally held them, having thus been accomplished, that such disposition of the public lands, or the proceeds thereof, ought to be made among the States of the Union, as shall be proportioned to the respective sacrifices and expenditures incurred by them in support of the United States; or, at least, in proportion to their Federal population.

III. Resolved, That the Governor be, and he is hereby requested, to transmit copies of these Resolutions to the Senators and Representatives from this State in the Congress of the United States.

The foregoing Resolutions were read, and, on motion of Mr. Clingman, ordered to be printed, and made the order of the day for Monday next. Mr. Hall, of Brunswick, subsequently moved that a Message be sent to the Senate, proposing the reference of the Resolutions to a joint select Committee of both Houses. This motion was objected to, and did not prevail.

On motion of Mr. Gary, a Message was sent to the Senate, proposing the reference to a joint select Committee of so much of the Governor's Message as relates to changing the periods at which the Courts are required to be held in the 3d Judicial Circuit. The proposition was agreed to by the Senate.

Mr. Manly submitted a series of Resolutions, which were adopted, referring to appropriate Committees so much of the Executive Communication as relates to Internal Improvement—so much as relates to the Revenue and fiscal system—so much as relates to the exchange of Law Reports with other States, and so much as relates to the Public Printing.

On motion of Mr. Guinn, a message was sent to the Senate, and concurred in by that branch, proposing to raise a select joint Committee on the subject of the Cherokee lands.

On motion of Mr. Hall, so much of the Executive Message as relates to the claims of North Carolina against the General Government, was referred to a select Committee.

On motion of Mr. Carson, so much as relates to the establishment of an additional Judicial Circuit, was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

On motion of Mr. Hawkins, a message was sent to the Senate, proposing to raise a joint select Committee on Military affairs.

On motion of Mr. Manly,

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire whether any further legislation be necessary more effectually to suppress the vice of Gambling, in this State.

Mr. Carson, the petition of sundry citizens of Rutherford and Buncombe, for the incorporation of a Turnpike Company. Laid on the table, on his motion.

The resignation of David Watson, of Chatham, Major of the 94th Regiment, was read and accepted.

The House then adjourned.

Friday, Nov. 19.

Messrs. Collins, of Edenton, Smallwood, of Beaufort, and Moore, of Hyde, appeared at the bar and, on motion, were qualified and admitted to take their seats.

A message was received from the Senate, proposing a reference of so much of the Governor's Message as relates to the right of N. Carolina to a portion of the public domain, and so much as relates to the Abolitionists of the North, to select joint Committees. Mr. Guthrie moved that the first branch of the proposition be laid on the table, which was carried. The remainder was agreed to, and the Senate informed thereof.

Mr. Rayner moved for leave of absence from the service of this House, for Mr. Gary, of Northampton, stating that business of importance had called him away, which would detain him until Monday. Granted.

The Speaker announced the following Committees.

Committee on Finance.—Messrs. Slade, McNeill, Hester, Brummell and Jacocks.

On Cherokee Lands.—Messrs. Guinn, of Macon, Erwin and Harrison, of Buncombe.

On the Library.—Messrs. Collins, Graham, and Cansler.

On motion of Mr. Guthrie, the Committee on Agriculture were instructed to inquire whether any alteration is necessary in the laws regulating the inspection of Flour in Fayetteville.

Mr. Manly stated that a vacancy now existed in the office of Major General of the 6th Division of Militia, occasioned by the removal of the incumbent. He moved that a message be sent to the Senate to ballot immediately for a Major General to supply the vacancy, and nominated therefor James Whitfield, of Lenoir. The proposition was agreed to by the Senate, and a balloting accordingly took place, which resulted in the choice of the gentleman nominated.

Mr. Dudley moved that a message be sent to the Senate, proposing to ballot immediately for a Solicitor of the 5th Judicial Circuit, and nominating therefor Alex'r. Troy. The proposition was concurred in, a balloting was had, and Mr. Troy was elected without opposition.

On motion of Mr. Hoke,

Resolved, That the Secretary of State communicate to this House the number of Grants which have been issued by the State for Lands within the State of Tennessee, showing the number of acres in each Grant, and whether for Revolutionary services, or otherwise.

The House adjourned.

Saturday, Nov. 21.

On the several motions of Messrs. McCleese and Horton, messages were sent to the Senate proposing to ballot immediately for Comptroller and Secretary of State, and nominating therefor Nathan A. Stedman, of Chatham, and William Hill, of Raleigh, the present incumbents. The message was concurred in, so far as relates to the Secretary of State only, and a balloting being ordered, it resulted in the choice of Mr. Hill.

Mr. Graham introduced a bill to allow further time for the registration of Grants, mesne conveyances, deeds of gift, &c. &c., which was read the first time. [Allows three years.]

Mr. Clingman submitted the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the expediency of amending the Road Laws.

Mr. Guthrie moved to amend the Resolution by devolving the inquiry upon the Committee on Agriculture, instead of the Judiciary.

Mr. Clingman remarked, that the gentleman from Chatham was not perhaps aware of the object of his Resolution. It was to amend a portion of the Road laws which was a subject of much complaint with his constituents—that part giving to Overseers of Roads the power of calling out convenient hands. He wished to make the law more definite upon this point, and to limit the exercise of this power by Overseers. The Judiciary Committee, he supposed the most appropriate, but if the House thought differently, he was satisfied.

The question on Mr. Guthrie's motion was decided in the negative.

Mr. Guinn presented a bill authorizing the entry of unsurveyed lands acquired by treaty from the Cherokees. Read the first time and referred.

Mr. Buie submitted the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the expediency of amending the Revenue laws by increasing the tax on Pedlars.

Mr. Clark said that for several years past, if his memory served him, this question as to the expediency of increasing the tax on Pedlars had been referred to a Committee, and they had, as uniformly, reported against it—thereby precluding the House from any opportunity of expressing its opinion as to the expediency of an increase. At this session he wished the sense of the House to be ascertained on this point and should therefore move to amend the Resolution offered, by substituting in its place the following:

Resolved, By the General Assembly of North Carolina, that there is a class of Merchants in this State called Pedlars, the number of whom has rapidly increased within a few years, is still increasing and ought to be diminished.

Resolved, That the practices of the Pedlars are in a high degree corrupting to the morals of our citizens, fraudulent upon all good and unsuspecting people and prejudicial to the interest of the regular and stationed Merchants, whose success in any community bespeak the prosperity and growth in wealth of that community.

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to report a bill increasing the tax upon Pedlars' licences, to such an extent, as to make it exceedingly inconvenient for them hereafter to collect in such numbers in the State.

His object, continued Mr. C. was to prevent these Pedlars from visiting our State altogether, if possible, or at least, to throw so many difficulties in the way of their getting here, as greatly to lessen their number. The only objections to an increase of the tax, which he had ever heard suggested, was that the tax raised from this specific source adds a considerable sum to the Revenue of the State; but that if it be increased, the certain effect will be to diminish the Revenue, by lessening the applications for licence.

He thought that this branch of the Revenue had better be lopped off altogether, than that the evils, which it engenders in the community should be tolerated. In the Eastern part of the State, said Mr. C. these Pedlars have so increased in number, of late years, as to excite complaint, if not alarm. Formerly they were so few, that no objection was made to their passing and repassing on good behavior, but their sudden augmentation, taken in connection with passing events, renders some measures necessary to stop their influx.

True it was, his Resolutions were couched in rather harsh terms, but not undeservedly so.—Those persons engaged in pedling, are all from the North for the most part are men of bad character at home, and are selected by their employers chiefly on account of their dexterity in driving a trade. The fraud and chicanery of a Yankee Pedlar are proverbial, and the epithets showered upon them show in what estimation they are held. They come to the South, imbued with all the fanatical notions of a Thompson or a Garrison—their calling gives them free access to our slaves, among whom they disseminate notions at war with the best interests both of the master and slave. He spoke from experience of the injurious influence of this class of traders on our colored population, and he trusted that effective measures would now be adopted to nip the evil in the bud.

The Resolutions were read and adopted.

Public Printer.—On Saturday last, Philo White was elected Printer to the State, for the ensuing year, by the following vote:

White,	105
Lemay,	89
Blank,	1

There were seven members absent, four of whom were Whigs. The result establishes the fact beyond doubt, that there is an Administration majority in the Legislature, but does not change our belief as to the relative strength of Van Buren and White, if the question could be tested on its naked merits.

Quere? What has become of the "Standard's" majority of "at least 22." of which it has hitherto uniformly boasted?

Raleigh Register.

Fifth Judicial Circuit.—On Friday last, Alexander Troy, Esq. was re-elected by the Legislature, Solicitor of the fifth Judicial Circuit.—Mr. Troy's name was alone in nomination, but the vote stood—Troy 128, Dillon Jordan 39, Blanks 20.—Ib.

Legislature.—The proceedings, so far, possess but little interest. The Committees, however, are now all appointed. They will go to work and digest the propositions before them, when work enough will be carved out.

Resolutions on the subject of the Public Lands have been introduced by Mr. Clingman, of Surry county. They are a literal copy, we believe, of those adopted by the House of Commons, at its last Session.—We are glad that the subject has been bro't thus early to the notice of the Legislature. We shall now see who will have the temerity, for the sake of promoting the schemes of Presidential Candidates, to vote against a proposition, the object of which is to secure for North-Carolina her just proportion of the proceeds of the sales of the Public Land—to which she is as much entitled as she is to the Revenue collected from her citizens.—Raleigh Register.

The question of the Surplus Revenue alone, connected as it is with all the relations of the Government, will furnish abundant employment and scope for the intelligence and patriotism of the new Congress. The amount of this surplus, which, it is now said, will, on the first of January next, come to more than Twenty Millions of Dollars, almost exceeds belief. But, even this is not the whole amount of the surplus means of the Treasury; for there is, in addition to the surplus revenue, the stock belonging to the Government in the Bank of the United States, amounting to Seven Millions of Dollars, swelling the disposable means of the government to twenty-seven or twenty-eight Millions of Dollars.—Nat. Intelligencer.

The following sensible speech was delivered by the Governor of Barbadoes, in opening the session of the house of assembly:—"Proceed on your duties, gentlemen; I have no observations to offer on any subject whatever!"

OBSERVER.

FAYETTEVILLE:

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1835.

General Assembly.—From the Raleigh Register received yesterday, we have copied nearly the whole of its journal of Legislative proceedings. In addition, we are indebted to a friend for the following letter, announcing the election of Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esq., the Senator from Craven, as Governor of the State for the ensuing year. This is a result entirely unexpected, until within a few days.

Raleigh, Nov. 24, 1835.

DEAR SIR: On yesterday, Richard Dobbs Spaight of Craven, was elected Governor of the State for the ensuing year, by the following vote, viz:

Spaight,	-	103
Meares,	-	86
Scattering,	-	5

It is considered here, that the vote given to Mr. Meares and the scattering votes constituted the Whig strength. The proposition to ballot gave rise to an animated and pungent debate, which will be fully reported, I presume, as the Junior Editor of the Register was present taking notes. One thing is certain, if they out-vote us, we can out-talk them. The Whigs are in high spirits, and preferred, I believe, Mr. Spaight's election to that of any other individual, from a conviction that in August next, before the people, under the amended Constitution, the Whig candidate will distance him all hollow. I have no doubt that Mr. Meares will be the candidate of the Whigs.

Superior Court.—Thursday, Friday and Saturday last, were fully occupied with the trial of a case, than which none has excited as much interest in this community for many years. It was the State vs. John Waddill, Jr. Joshua W. Cochran, and Jas. H. Myrover, on an Indictment for killing Joseph Hubbard, on the 19th of Sept. last. Without entering fully into the testimony, it is sufficient to state, that the deceased came to his death by a gun shot wound, whilst attempting to make his escape from an officer and his posse, who had arrested him, or were endeavoring to arrest him, under a warrant for a high misdemeanor. The first day was entirely taken up in forming a Jury, the second with the examination of testimony, and the third with the arguments of counsel. The Judge's charge was delivered to the Jury after dark on Saturday evening, when the Jury retired, and in about ten minutes returned with a verdict of Not Guilty. The announciation of this verdict produced, as we understand, a very audible expression of the approbation of the large crowd which had thronged the Court House from the commencement to the close of the trial.

The prosecution was conducted by Mr. Troy, the Solicitor, assisted by Dillon Jordan, Jr. The defence was managed with much ability by Messrs. Toomer, Henry, and Eccles.

The Court is still in session, and we believe is still occupied with the State docket.

The majority in favor of Ratification in the above 51 counties, is 4,468. Fourteen counties remain to be heard from, viz: Ashe, Bertie, Brunswick, Camden, Chatham, Currituck, Greene, Haywood, Johnston, Macon, Montgomery, Randolph, Tyrrell, and Yancey, which it is supposed will somewhat increase the above majority.

The Editor of the Charlotte Journal has correctly apprehended our views in relation to the agitation of the Abolition excitement in our Legislature. It is admitted by Southern Editors who have visited the North, that we have lost ground even among our friends by the violent course we have pursued.—The more we stir the question, the more we shall lose. In the South itself, it is our decided conviction, that immense injury is done both to master and slave, by filling the public journals and the public mind with the subject. But we do not like the subject, and therefore beg leave to drop it.

Our readers in this Judicial District will hear with pleasure, that Alexander Troy, Esq. has been re-elected by the Legislature, State Solicitor, for another term of 4 years. We cannot claim this a party triumph, though Mr. Troy's politics are well known. We are content to set it down as a tribute from all parties to the well known excellent private and public character of Mr. Troy. It is well known that there are those who would have been glad to creep into the office on party grounds, but it appears that the prospect did not justify an open attempt.

On Monday last, Nathan A. Stedman Esq. was re-elected Comptroller of the State, without opposition.

A Diamond found in North Carolina.—The Charlotte Journal states, that a Diamond has actually been discovered in the Gold region; that it had been forwarded to Thomas G. Clemson, Esq. of Philadelphia, Corresponding Secretary of the Geological Society of Pennsylvania, who says, that in the Geological Society there had not been a dissenting voice as to the genuineness of the Gem.

We hope the recent hoax in relation to the discovery of a diamond in Virginia, has put the Editor of the Journal on his guard, and that he has not been imposed upon by a stale joke.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Observer, dated

NATCHEZ, Miss. 5th Nov. 1835.

"Dear Sir: Our general election in this city and county closed this day, and the result is a most glorious one for the people, against King Caucus. Lynch, the White candidate for Governor, has a majority over Runnels, the Jackson Van Buren candidate, of 386 votes. For Congress, Col. Wilkins (White) has a majority over Claiborn, the Van Buren caucus candidate, of 364. Claiborn was born and raised in this county.—We have elected our two members to the Legislature by majorities of 3 to 1. So you see that little Van is left far behind. There is no doubt that Judge Lynch will receive a large majority in the State. We consider here that Mr. Van Buren has no claims on the South; also feel a little surprised that North Carolina should advocate his claims for the Presidency in preference of her own favorite son. But we trust that the defeat his neighbours gave him in Pennsylvania will open her eyes."

We have the pleasure of announcing that the new Steam Boat Duncan MacRae, built by Mr. O'Hanlon, of Fayetteville, for the Pee Dee River, arrived at this place on Friday last, in five days from Georgetown.—This being her first trip, she will no doubt generally come up in shorter time. We had not an opportunity to visit her ourselves, but we learn from those who did, that she is a strong and safe boat. She is 130 feet long, 22 feet 3 inches beam, and 7 feet 9 inches hold, with an engine of 55 horse power.

Cheraw Gazette.

FROM THE BOSTON ATLAS.

The Result of the Election.—It is now certain that the Hon Edward Everett has been chosen Governor by a majority of more than Twelve Thousand of the votes of the freemen of this State. Returns from all but 20 towns give him 36,938—Judge Morton, 24,510—Mr. Armstrong, 1811.—All the various combinations of the opposition have been again routed. With all their untiring efforts to swell their vote, they have fallen short of their last year's strength by about three thousand.

The Vicksburg Tragedy.—The Cincinnati Gazette publishes a letter from D. W. Hullum, an aged clergyman, the father of one of the five gamblers hung by the citizens of Vicksburg, addressed to the Governor of Mississippi. The letter is an appeal to the Governor for justice. The aged father gives a brief statement of the affair at Vicksburg, and affirms that there is no part of the United States, in which the vice of gambling is so generally practised among the officers of the law, from the Supreme Judge down to the Constable. His appeal for justice concludes in the following terms:

"These are startling truths, and I allude to them not to palliate the offence, but to show that the recent crusade at Vicksburg was not so much the result of a deep and abiding sense of justice and virtue, as it was of wicked hearts, bad passions, personal revenge, and a reckless spirit of insubordination to the laws. As an evidence, one of the principal actors was in the constant habit of visiting gaming houses, and who had previously, by his seductive arts, contributed perhaps more than any other man, to lead the unfortunate victim of his personal vengeance into these sinks of iniquity.

"Enclosed are the names of sixteen persons who were engaged in this horrid tragedy, and the names of nine witnesses of the fact, which I humbly trust you will forward without delay to the Attorney General, or other officer at Vicksburg, charged with the prosecution of the defendants.

"Respectfully, LUKE W. HULLUM."

Caution to the Public.

THE Public are hereby forewarned from trading for a Note on Smith & McNair, for fifty-one dollars and sixty-three cents, to the best of my recollection. The Note is payable to the Subscriber, dated the 6th of August, 1834, bearing interest since the 1st of January, 1834 A credit was entered on the Note some time last Summer of thirty-five dollars and some cents, the amount of the credit not precisely recollected.

The said Smith & McNair are hereby instructed not to pay the said note to any person but myself, as the note was mislaid by the Subscriber handing a letter to a gentleman at Mrs Bryant's, on the 14th of October last, 7½ miles south of Fayetteville, N. C. with the said Note enclosed, directed to John C Smith, P M at Springfield, Richmond County, N. C. The gentleman was to deposite the letter in the Post Office at Davis's Spring.—Mr. Smith informs me that the letter never came to hand. The gentleman that I handed the letter to, said he lived in Robeson County. I don't know who to apply to for information about it, as I neglected to inquire the gentleman's name; but he would confer a favor on the Subscriber by writing a few lines to him at Fayetteville, N C. informing him whether he deposited the letter at Davis's Spring Post Office or not.

A chance for a Printer.

THE Subscriber, desirous of devoting his entire attention to other business, offers for sale the CAMDEN JOURNAL ESTABLISHMENT, connected with the office is all the material necessary for printing the paper, and for doing all the job work usually offered at a country office. The Press is an excellent one, of Peter Smith's patent. The Journal has a respectable, and increasing circulation, and an advertising patronage inferior to no country paper in the Southern States.

To a Printer, one capable of discharging the duties of Editor, and devoting a part of his time to the mechanical department, this situation offers very decided advantages.

The establishment will be sold a bargain, and the terms accommodating. Possession may be had on or after the first of January next.

Persons wishing to purchase may learn further particulars, by addressing the Subscriber, post paid. JOHN C. WEST.

The Voice of Experience

HAS Spoken! and the afflicted are once more called upon to listen to facts which cannot be controverted; for a few years past the INDIAN VEGETABLE ELIXIR has effected more cures in the cases it is recommended for than any other medicine that has ever been recommended to the public. It is confidently asserted that in 90 cases out of 100, it has had the desired effect in removing Rheumatism, Gout, Pains in the Bones, Joints and Muscles. A few of a great many proofs are herewith submitted So important is it always to have it at hand, that every family would do well to keep it by them in case of need. So effectual has the Vegetable Indian Elixir proved in all those cases in which it is recommended, that the proprietor feels authorized to state, it will effect a cure in ninety cases out of a hundred, when taken according to the printed directions accompanying each Bottle. The Elixir is composed entirely of Vegetable ingredients, and may be taken without the least risk or injury to the constitution. It is unnecessary to say more in favor of this invaluable Remedy; too many in this community have already been cured by it for its virtues long to remain unknown, and it must, and will become the universal resort of the afflicted here, as it has done in other places. For the further satisfaction of those who may feel disposed to doubt the efficacy of this medicine, the following certificates are submitted Its reputation, however, is now established in every neighborhood in South Carolina, and hundreds of our most respectable citizens can testify to its truly admirable qualities.

This is to certify that the Subscriber had been for some time afflicted with the Rheumatism very severely, from which he could get no relief, until being advised to procure some of Dr. Fitch's Indian Vegetable Elixir, which he accordingly did, and from which, after taking a few doses, he was entirely relieved. SAM'L PEARSE.

Columbia, April 16, 1832.

Near Rice Creek Springs, Richland District S. C., April 20, 1833.

I certify, that my son, Thomas Mitchell, Jr., aged 15 years, has been troubled for eight years last past with the Rheumatism, and for the last three years has been unable to help himself; his pain was very severe, so that he could not be moved without great agony; his limbs were paralyzed and drawn up and he presented an object hopeless to all that knew him I resorted to several Physicians for relief for him, without effect. Having heard of Dr Fitch's Indian Vegetable Elixir, I procured the same for my son. On taking it he was much relieved, and by continuing it to the fourth bottle, has entirely removed the pain, his flesh is restored, and he is now enjoying good health. I would in all cases of Rheumatism, earnestly recommend it to those who are affected with this excruciating pain.

THOMAS MITCHELL.

We being neighbors and acquaintances of Mr. Thomas Mitchell, and having often seen the situation of his son, fully corroborate the above stated case, and, as we believe, has been cured by the Indian Vegetable Elixir.—Samuel Meek, David D. Hay, Briteon Spelling, Robert Thompson, B Haigood.

This is to certify that the Subscriber had been for some years tormented with that excruciating disease, Chronic Rheumatism, and was advised in February last to procure from Dr. Fitch some of his Indian Vegetable Elixir. Accordingly, I procured some of it, and to my great surprise and still greater relief it entirely removed the complaint, after taking a few doses, and I have not since had a return of it. JESSE ARTHUR.

Columbia, April 21, 1831.

Who can doubt the efficacy of the INDIAN VEGETABLE ELIXIR

This is to certify, that I the subscriber have for several years past, at stated periods, been grevi ously afflicted with rheumatism, and have at intervals been confined to my house unable to attend my ordinary avocations. I had resorted to the common remedies, without obtaining relief. Hearing of the value of Dr. Fitch's medicine, I applied to him for the same, and have, as I trust, by the efficacy of his Indian Vegetable Elixir, been perfectly cured. On one occasion I was for more than a month in such a situation, that I could not move my limbs without assistance, and by making use of one bottle was restored. At another time I was for the space of three weeks unable to leave my house, and by the use of one bottle was again relieved I therefore recommend cordially, and with great confidence, this invaluable specific to those who are afflicted with Rheumatic complaints

Dr. A. FITCH:—Sir—I take this opportunity by the politeness of one of our Representatives in the Legislature to acquaint you of the almost miraculous cure effected by your Indian Vegetable Elixir on my daughter since I last saw you. I purchased two bottles of the Elixir and administered them to my daughter; after having used one bottle she was greatly relieved, and the second restored her health altogether. She is in the enjoyment of better health than she has had for several years. I deem it my duty to make this communication to you with a desire that you may make whatever use you think proper of it; and I earnestly recommend the use of the Elixir to all those who are suffering in a similar manner.

Another Fact.

EDGEFIELD, June 2d, 1832.

Mr. James Boatwright:—Dear Sir—Permit me to return you my sincere thanks for your kind attention in delivering my letter to Dr. Fitch for the five bottles of his Indian Vegetable ELIXIR It came safe to hand, and if you are a parent, you can conceive of my joy, when I inform you that my son who has for the last six months suffered every pain from the Rheumatism which was possible for a human being to bear, has been entirely cured by that Elixir I had mourned over him and had given him up to be a cripple for life, and all the fond expectations I had anticipated from him, appeared to be blasted forever. But now to see him walking about free from pain, and daily gaining strength, gives me more pleasure than I can express Several of my neighbors have experienced immediate relief In only one instance have I known it to fail, and that was a most hopeless one; still he thinks he has experienced benefit enough from it to induce him to persevere longer the use of it; as he has not yet given it a sufficiently fair trial. If this communication can be of any service to my fellow beings, I freely give my consent that you should make such use of it as you think conducive to that end

I remain ever your much obliged friend,
